(a) The signatories to the Memorandum of Association, the office bearers of the Governing Body of the society shall be first members of the Society.

(b) The Governing Body may admit to membership any person of any caste, creed or sex who has attained the age of eighteen years and agreed in writing to be bound by the Memorandum of Association and regulations of the Society and who in the opinion of the Governing Body will be interested in advancement of the objects of the Society.

Be it noted here that the power to admit members is the sole and absolute power of the Governing Body may refuse to admit any person as a member without assigning any reason thereof. There will be two types of members:

(i) Honorary members: Any person whose connection with the society deemed to be useful may with the consent of such person be elected as honorary member of the society. Such members shall not however, be eligible to be member of the Governing Body nor shall be entitled to vote any meeting.

(ii) Ordinary members: Any person, qualified to be member and paying prescribed ordinary membership fee may be admitted as ordinary member of the society.

(iii) Cessation membership: Any member shall cease to be a member - (a) on his resignation from membership by a letter addresses to the Secretary, (b) on his becoming insane or insolvent, management or conduct of affairs of society or a body corporate or any offence involving moral turpitude.

1. Register of Members :- The society shall maintain a Register of members containing the names, addresses and their occupations, the date of admission and the date of cessation of membership. The Register will be kept open for inspection of the members of society on requisition. All entries required to be made therein shall be entered within a period of 5 days.

2. Rights and obligations of members :- Any ordinary member of the society has the right (a) to elect and be elected in any election of the society, (b) to submit suggestion for discussion to the Governing Body and sub-committee on any matter relating to society (c) to inspect the accounts and the proceeding of the meeting of the society on appointment with the secretary, (d) to pay his subscription within the prescribed time. Defaulting members shall not be allowed to take part or vote in a meeting. Members shall have one vote each.

Expulsion of members :

Frequent action any member if found by the Governing Body detrimental to the interest and is in violation of the rules and regulation of the society, he may be after due enquiry, censured, suspended or expelled from the membership by Governing Body. In that case the Governing shall first serve the member concerned with a showing therein the charges framed and ask him to submit his statement of defense within a month. On receipt of the explanation the Governing Body shall have the power to take a suitable action against the delinquent member after allowing him to defend his case. If no reply to the show cause notice is received within a month, the Governing Body may take an ex-parte decision.

For any act of expulsion or termination no such member shall be entitled to prefer any claim for compensation or damage even if proved on subsequent date that such act of expulsion or termination was wrongful and/or unlawful.
